SATURDAY LAST FOR CANDIDATES.

Saturday is the last day for candidates to enter for the various offices under the primary that will be held Tuesday, May 21. All petitions must be filed with the clerk of the board, Mr. Henry Farrell by this date or the name will not appear on the ticket. Besides the names for various county offices there will be candidates to select for central committee, delegates to the district conventions, etc.

The Republican central committee met Monday afternoon to arrange for delegates to the county convention, which will be held on Saturday, May 25. There will be one delegate for each 30 votes as cast for Warren Harding for governor, 48 delegates in the convention. At this time delegates will be chosen to the state, Senatorial, Circuit and Common Pleas convention. Cedarville township gets two delegates as will the corporation.

Judge Runyan has declined the nomination on the Democratic ticket for congress from this district to succeed Congressman Denver. The Democrats have entered on D. K. Hempstead, private secretary to Congressman Denver, and he has consented to make the race. Mr. Hempstead had not only acted as private secretary to Mr. Denver but he managed each of the Congressman's three campaigns. As an organizer and one acquainted with political conditions in the district there is none better posted than D. K.

In this issue will be found the announcement of Mr. George Sheets as a candidate for county clerk before the primary. Mr. Sheets is a resident of Xenia where he is favorably known and is receiving the united support of a large number of friends in his race. He was born and reared on a farm in the western part of the county and a house to house canvass is being conducted.

The Democrats will have a full county ticket this fall and to this end a complete list was made up at the convention in Xenia Saturday. The County ticket will be as follows: Commissioners, Charles R. Bales, Charles Hackett, D. A. Ketter; Auditor, Charles K. Wolf; Treasurer, Wm. Neeld; Prosecuting Attorney, R. D. Smith; Sheriff, Oliver Watson; Clerk of Courts, Harry L. Harns; Surveyor, Robert Hood; Congressional committee-men, H. M. Barber, James Canady; Coroner, Mr. Bittenhour; Representative, James Hite.

Yielding to the desires of his many friends throughout the county, Dr. P. C. Marquart, of Osborn, decided that he would be a candidate for re-election for Coroner of Greene county and will be a candidate for the Republican nomination at the May primary. Dr. Marquart, who during his term of office has made many friends throughout the county, had announced some time ago that he would not be a candidate and he is not now entering the race to satisfy any personal desire, but to meet the demands of his Republican friends. There is nothing in the office financially and he went after it in the first place in order to win his acquaintance in the county. Having acquired that, he was ready to quit, but his friends were not ready to have him do so.

We Want Im- proved Service.

South Charleston gets a new $7000 Pennsylvania depot this summer, which should make Xenia, with her half-century-old dingy depot, stand back and bite her lips. We congratulate our neighbors on the East on securing such an improvement, but for Xenia there seems to be nothing doing other than to continue crossing railroad tracks and dodging switch engines in going to and from the depot.

So far as buildings are concerned Xenia has nothing on Cedarville for our depot appears as if it was built previous to the Mexican war. But we don't mind that if the company could only give us decent passenger service. Depots are commodious and sometimes pleasing to the eye from an architectural stand point but we would not again refer to our depot in a long long time if the proper railroad authorities would give our people a service such as a town the size of Cedarville deserves. It has been hinted that unless the new schedule provides for train service of less than ten and twelve hours apart, the railroad company will get to answer to the State Railroad Commission for its action and there are other means of forcing the company to different terms if the people are amind too.

State Examiners File Reports.

State Examiners Brown and Talbot have filed their report covering the county offices from October 1910 until January 1, 1912. All the offices are found in good condition other than an occasional error now and then. No report has been filed for the auditors offices.

Sheep claims allowed by the commissioners where witnesses are related to claimant is not permitted. The commissioners are complimented on the manner in which the county's business is conducted.

Sheriff McCallister, Probate Judge Howard, Clerk of Courts Marshall and County Auditor are complimented.

The Greene County Teachers' Association will hold its regular meeting at the McKinley building in Xenia Saturday, April 27. Miss Maera E. Palm, of Ochochoon, will lecture on "The Story of Early Education." Solo by Miss Martha Anderson. Dr. Fess will speak on the Constitutional Convention and Miss Palm will also lecture on "When First We Go to School."

DEAN BRIBERY CASE OPENS.

The case of Walter L. Dean, county auditor, recently indicted by the grand jury on a charge of giving Anderson Garrett $75 to influence him in marking ballots for infirm voters, opened Thursday in Common Pleas Court, Judge O. B. Brown of Dayton on the bench.

That the case is one of importance is shown by the legal talent, there being eight attorneys. Assistant Attorney General McGhee, who conducted the probe, Judge Wright of Logan county and Prosecutor Johnson represent the state. M. R. Snodgrass, M. J. Hartley, M. A. Broadstone, J. N. Dean and Frank Dean for the defense, Auditor Dean.

Most of the day was taken up in examining jurors and a new panel of 23 names from the jury wheel had to be drawn. Mr. J. H. Nisbet of this place was removed on a preliminary challenge by the state. Each side has four challenges.

The jury is still incomplete at this time in that each side may ask the removal of one or more. It is as follows: A. C. Anderson, Charles Adair, S. W. Hartman, John Bailey, George Beal, W. J. Boots, Towne Conifer, George Volkensand, A. J. Huston, O. A. Jacobs, Jefferson Thomas and John Dillingier, Jr.

Missionary Party Missed Titanic.

Miss Mary Kyle, who has been located in India as a missionary returned to Xenia Tuesday after seven years abroad. Miss Kyle was accompanied by Rev. H. S. Nisbet, wife and five young children and Miss Nan Hadley. The party had decided to sail on a vessel but owing to the coal strike it was taken off and arrangements were made to return on the ill-fated Titanic that sank in the Atlantic ocean Monday morning with 1,500 people. After making arrangements for the Titanic they learned that they could not come home by that route. The Carmichael, which would start first and the journey was made by this vessel. Friends are congratulating them on being fortunate in taking the first boat and escaped the fate of the Titanic.

McDufford Gets Stiff Sentence.

Al McDufford, who has lived along the public highways in this section for several months, having a wagon fitted out for such a life was up before Mayor Bull Tuesday on a serious charge in connection with a woman, who has left her husband, and her sixteen year old daughter. Prosecutor Johnson was here Monday in conference with the officials and it is supposed that the woman got some knowledge of what was to be done for she left between two days and has not been seen since.

Mr. McDufford was given a fine of $100 and costs and three months in the workhouse. This makes two men and one woman now serving time in the work under sentences that will require from six to eight months to complete. Various attorneys have examined the commitment papers concerning the woman in an effort to get her released but they were "hole-proof."

SPRAYING RESULTS.

Further proof that it pays to prune and spray fruit trees is submitted by Elmer T. Fawcett, of Zanesville, O., who writes: "One Baldwin apple tree pruned, and sprayed last year by Mr. Luckwood, of the College of Agriculture, and declared ruined by those present, produced 60 bushels of apples last fall, 40 of which were merchantable."

THEATRE NOTES.

"The Greatest success of recent years" is the verdict not only of New York and Chicago, where "The Love Tales of Hoffman" has been heard in this country, but also in London, Paris, Berlin and other music centers of Europe where this wonderful opera is the rage. "The Love Tales of Hoffman" is one of the few comic operas that has ever been allowed at Covent Garden, London, and where the Sheehan English Opera Company secured the English performing rights to this masterpiece it required what is without doubt the one great success of the season, and one which is setting a new standard in America for comic opera. "The Love Tales of Hoffman" will be heard at the Fairbanks Theatre Friday evening, April 25th, with the most remarkable company of artists that ever appeared in comic opera in this country, headed by Joseph F. Sheehan, America's greatest tenor.

MEMBER OF CONGRESS
Sixth District
R. A. HAYNES
Editor of the Hillsboro Dispatch

Greene county was this week visited by Mr. R. A. Haynes, editor of the Hillsboro Dispatch, and Republican candidate for congress in this district before the primary on May 21. Mr. Haynes is a clean cut gentleman thoroughly capable of representing the various interests in this district. Mr. Haynes is outside of the factional fight in the district and especially so in Greene county. We have no hesitancy in recommending him to the voters in this county, particularly to the temperance people. If you want to stop candidates stepping from one office into another vote for Brother Haynes for Congress.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR APRIL 21.
THE APPOINTING OF THE TWELVE.

LESSON TEXT—27-19 and Matt. 5:22-26.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Ye did not choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye go and bear fruit."—John 15:16 (R. V.).

Things do not happen in the realm of religion, they come to pass. No man can alone accomplish any great task. Every great leader has been blessed by one or more equally great helpers. Luther had his Melancthon; Wesley had his brother Charles, Whitfield others; Moody had Whittle, Bliss, Sankey and more. These leaders but followed "in his steps."

Jesus' ministry made him very much observed and at the same time greatly multiplied his disciples and pupils. When, therefore, he chose these twelve, he desired not only to obtain help and to begin to teach those who were afterward to take up his work, but like every other act, he desired to teach a lesson to those who were so carefully observing his life.

So it was that the large number of twelve, corresponding to the twelve tribes, at once confirmed his assumption of the Messiahship. This meant that in him those wondrous prophecies were being fulfilled, and it also served to stimulate those upon whom the choice fell. Moses who had this people out of Egypt had to be helped (Ex. 18:17-24) in his work and a greater who is to found a new kingdom calls about him those who shall do a greater work than merely to judge the people. Why greater? Because they are not only to judge results, but are to change results by altering causes. They are to have power over demons even as the Master, for evil has no rights. The source of their power is to be Jesus for he is to be "with them"—power and protection as well. So with us. (Matt. 28:20.) Their power is to go with us, for we learn by doing, hence he sends them forth.

Some Things It Teaches and Why.

This lesson is different from our previous one where Jesus first called his disciples. Luke tells us that these twelve were selected from among the rest of the disciples. The greater number and more extended authority of these "messengers" called upon them greater teachings than the others who were disciples or "learners."

Matthew tells us what Jesus said to be the character of his representatives. He likens them to salt and to a light. "Nothing is better for the whole body than salt and sun" were the words of Pliny. Salt is a great cleansing agency. It is a strong tonic; it is a great preservative against decay; it is a great preventive against corruption, but Jesus adds, "If salt loses its salting quality, it becomes like any other earth; it has no distinguishing essential, characteristic. Like any other earth, it has no salt of the earth; it loses its identity, loses its saltiness and becomes like the world about him. If he does he is fit then only to be trodden under the foot of man. These disciples are to be the light of the world. It is a good thing to preserve, to purify, to cleanse, but it is a greater thing to energize, to direct, to lead."

How Men Are Saved.

These apostles came from many walks in life and represent varied temperaments. The aggressive Peter and the other "son of thunder" who would call down fire upon those who walked not with Jesus. The reflective cautious Thomas, the plotting practical Judas, "who also betrayed him." These are the men who are sent forth, some as public heralds (John 1:36) and some by personal solicitation (Jas. 1:41) to win yet other followers.

Men are saved through saved men and those whom he sends forth are those who have first learned to follow. Their work is made permanent rather than helped by the presence of great crowds (v. 12).

Why send out Judas? Undoubtedly he had all the desired qualifications for leadership, and chosen as he was that he "might be with him" he need not have hardened his heart, bringing upon himself the greater condemnation. Jesus had a threefold work for these disciples: (1) to preach; (2) to heal; (3) to cast out demons—note the spiritual need is the foremost one. Then comes the ministry of healing, to invert the order is to prevent the teaching of the Book. As to the third it is evident it was something different than disease.

This play which will be given by the philosophic Literary society this year is a three act farce comedy entitled "The Ulster." This play was first introduced in this country last June by the senior class of Wooster University. The play made such a popular hit that all the leading collegiate dramatic clubs of the state have since been staging it with like success.

The play has an entirely new and fascinating plot. The play was written by the famous German playwright, Sydney Rosenfeld. The cast of characters, eighteen in number, have been hard at work under the leadership of the professor of oratory for six weeks, and have the play well in hand. Some of the old leading stars of the college and also some new ones will be al Bank in Springfield has severed his connection with that institution and is preparing to leave soon for Whittier, Cal. The change is made in the hope of improving Mr. Wild-man's health. Mrs. Wildman and son and daughter will not go west until sometime in June. Mr. Wildman and family have many friends here who wish them much happiness and improved health in their new location.

Mrs. Clara Keys of South Charleston, wife of Edward Keys, fell into a cistern Monday while drawing water. The shock was so great that she died without regaining consciousness. The deceased was 75 years of age and is survived by a husband and four children, three sons and a daughter. Edward Keys is a brother of Milton Keys who was engaged in the shoe repairing business here for several years and located in Orlando, Florida. The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the home.

The local option election for Clark county takes place next Thursday and wets and dries have had a heated campaign, much space being used in the city newspapers to influence the voters one way or the other. The dries will hold a monster parade, Saturday afternoon.
Three years ago the county voted dry by 180 and the wets claim an easy victory while the dries are confident of winning again with an increased majority.

Street Improve- ments Promised.

Notices are being placed in the hands of all property holders on certain streets requiring cement gutters and curb to be put down by the first of July; unless completed by that time the law gives the village power to make the improvements and the cost will be assessed against the property. People are taking considerable interest in this proposed improvement knowing that it will greatly improve the town in appearance, also from a sanitary standpoint and add value to the property. South Charleston, Yellow Springs and Xenia have completed this work so it is time for Cedarville to get up in procession. Those who laid the cement walks twenty years ago thought such a task an advanced step, so it was at that time but there is no one now that would do away with a cement walk, nor will they with the gutter after it is done.

Jamestown will vote on Tuesday, May 21, on a bond proposition for $30,000 for the purpose of paying the village's share of cement walks, curbs and gutters. This amount will also pave fourteen streets in the village Bituminous macadam, concrete and brick. Such an improvement as this would place Jamestown in the lead of all county villages for first class streets.

Pay High Tributes To Mel Barrows.

Xenia Herald Showers Bouquets on the Latest Candidate for Republican Nomination for County Treasurer.

Every reader of the Gazette, should read the following article from the Xenia Herald, it certainly has the right ring.

Beat the drum! Blow the bazoo; Make the bassoon ring! Wind up the tuba. Give the fife fits! The item calls for it.

Mel Barrows, according to strongly authenticated report—not one of the grape vine type, either,—is going to do it. Within seven days, a more or less, formal announcement of his candidacy for the nomination for County Treasurer may be expected. If it is not this eminent family journal will publicly acknowledge it has been fooled.

THE HERALD is privileged to state that Mel Barrows is certain to be a candidate and if he is looked out for a swath in and through the county that will look like the foot steps of a road roller.

It may be said that Mel Barrows has been importuned repeatedly to get into the race. It may be added that he has been promised support by an army of friends. It is not overdoing it to say that in personal popularity Mel Barrows is unsurpassed in the county and when that army of friends get to work they are going to hit all the impregnable places with Shafter like force and come out of the fray with the capture of enough ballots to fill all the waste baskets in the court house.

Mel Barrows has been in a delicate position. As foreman of the grand jury he had a duty to the public to perform. He had on the one side the natural appeals for leniency and on the other demands of a sickened public for a verdict free from white wash. Duty held a star of hope before him and he followed it without faltering.

It takes a strong man to do his duty under such circumstances. It takes more than that—a patriot—a parrot of the type of old Cincinnati or of Israel Putnam, who left his plough in the furrow when the red coats started that little trouble at Breed's hill.

In the words of the frontier orator, Mel Barrows "seen his duty and done it." His courage marks it to be hoped, a new era in Greene county—an era that will restore the ballot to the white purity that should be its environment forever.

If he and his fellow jurors have taken the action that has stopped the flood of corruption that has, like a sore festering, and hurt the whole body politic, then it is up to the electors of Greene county, to rise in their might and say, with ringing emphasis, "We are for strong, courageous men—men who are not afraid to do right as they see it and we are going to reward men of the type of Mel Barrows."

Go where you may in Greene county and you will hear praises of the work of the grand jury. May be some of the members did break down and shed tears when they faced on one side their binding oath, and on the other life time friends, against whom evidence had been piled up. It may have hurt them to agree, but back of them, was the great State of Ohio, calling out for justice.

The jurors showed Spartan like courage. They showed the courage that has made illustrious the name of martyrs. They showed the courage that wrote the Magna Charta, the courage that wrote the Social Contract and the courage that penned the Declaration of Independence.

It's a courage that makes the pulses beat faster. It's a courage that is emblazoned on the stars and stripes. It's a courage which is typified by the Goddess of Liberty. It's a courage that embodies everything summed up in that grand old document—the Constitution of the United States.

It's the courage that has made Mel Barrows the man of the hour. It's the courage that has sent his name ringing out all over the country side. It's the courage that brings Honesty and Purity once more to the capitaney of the ranks—and may they stand there forever, leading a favored people on and up to the best and greatest things in life.

Committee For Lecture Course.

The newly appointed Cedarville Lecture Course Committee held their first meeting in Carnegie Hall Tuesday evening.

The committee, which was recently appointed at a public meeting of the citizens of Cedarville, to secure a Lecture Course for the town and surrounding community, during the coming season, consists of the following representatives from the various churches and schools: Mr. S. C. Wright, Dr. M. T. Marsh, Fred Leroy Allen, Mr. Louis Thidall, Miss Edna Townsley and Miss Ervin.

At the meeting of this committee the following officers were elected: President, S. C. Wright; Treasurer, Louis Thidall; Secretary, Mervin Ervin. Several plans were discussed in the interest of making this course a success—financially and otherwise.

The Lecture Course this coming year is to be promoted and financed by the citizens of Cedarville, and the hearty support of every loyal citizen in and around Cedarville is fully anticipated by those who have been entrusted with a certain amount of the responsibility. All reports will be expended to secure a course of as good talent as the means will allow.

MEL BARROWS.

To the Citizens of Greene County, In coming before the people as a candidate for County Treasurer, I will say that I have been a resident of Greene County for 47 years, and, of course will have to stand on the reputation established during that period.

I refer you to my many associates and the general public with whom I have transacted business for many years.

If honored by the people as their choice of the candidates before them, I will be their Treasurer, and will consider their confidence and trust reposed in me as sacred, and will perform the duties incident thereto, to the best of my ability.

I would like to shake hands with every man, woman and child in Greene County between now and election day; if for any reason I cannot do so, it will afford me the same pleasure after the election, as it would before, and that smile will go with it.

Sincerely,

M. F. BARROWS.

New System of Towing.
Tests of a new towing system invented by a German government engineer, Herr Koss, have been recently made on the Elfrup section (1.45 miles in length) of the Dortmund-Ems canal. An elastic rail is laid at the bottom of the canal, and the tugboat carries at its bottom four rollers which clamp the rail. These rollers are operated from the boat which is thus propelled. A large economy of power is claimed for this method. The experimental tug is worked by electricity, the energy being obtained through a cable from an auxiliary boat equipped with a dynamo. This, however, is only a provisional arrangement, and in ordinary working a trolley wire would be installed alongside the canal. Electrical operation can obviously be replaced by crude oil motors, etc., each barge being fitted with a set of rollers acting on the rail.—London Times.

Wordless the Play Might Be, but Bond of Sentiment Could Not Be Ignored.

In what language is a wordless play given? When it is presented by a German company, will the play be given in German? Winthrop Ames, who brought over Professor Max Reinhardt's wordless play, "Sunmum," from the Deutsches theater, Berlin, was under the impression that "Sunmum" would not be given in any language, as the descriptive phrase expressly states that no words are used. All announcements made concerning the production in New York said plainly that it was a wordless play, yet when Mr. Ames told a prominent artist, a native-born German, about the play and invited him to attend a performance, he said:

"I shall be delighted to see it. I have read a great deal about it in the Berlin and London papers. It will be doubly enjoyable, ble to me, being in German—I won't have to be thinking of the English words and their meanings all the time."

"But no words are used in the whole play," said Mr. Ames. "Haven't I just been telling you it is a wordless play?"

"A play without words!" said the German artist. "But the players are all Germans!"

Sola Topi.

An English correspondent at the durbar made mention in a recent letter of a "solar" helmet. A Manchester Guardian contributor points out that the word has no connection whatever with the sun. "Sola" is the Hindu and Bengali name for the tall leguminous swamp plant known to botanists as Aeschynomene aspera, the stems of which furnish the pith, otherwise spongewood, which is made up into the helmets worn by Europeans in the tropics. Hence "solar topi" is not to be translated verbally as "sun bonnet," although the confusion is natural enough, considering how precise is the translation in fact.
